that kind?'
"The clerk smiled indulgently. 'Oh,' he explained, 'there was nothing the matter with him. You see, one of the castors had come off his chair. This department will not replace castors—it repairs nothing less serious than a broken leg. So Blank broke one of his legs and now he will be able to get the castor put on small?"

James H. Vassar, who has been connected with the United States Sub-Treasury at Boston more than forty years, and nearly that length of time in the position of specie clerk, is the most remarkable and accomplished coin expert in America, and has few, if any, equals in the world.
